

Serpentine

Serpentine

Dossier 001 by Serpentine
Portrayed Through The Lenses of Francesco Nazardo
and Rodrigo Chapa

A Contemporary Jewelry Venture
Based In Mexico City, Crafted With
The Highest Standards

The 2015–2016
Lookbook Featuring
Four Different Collections
Of Jewelry

Oblinas
Mundos
Opal Pools
Origins

A close-up photograph of a woman's ear. She is wearing a black onyx and silver eye-shaped stud earring with an opal center. The earring has a stylized eye design with a small opal set in the center of the iris. The woman has dark hair and is wearing a black top.

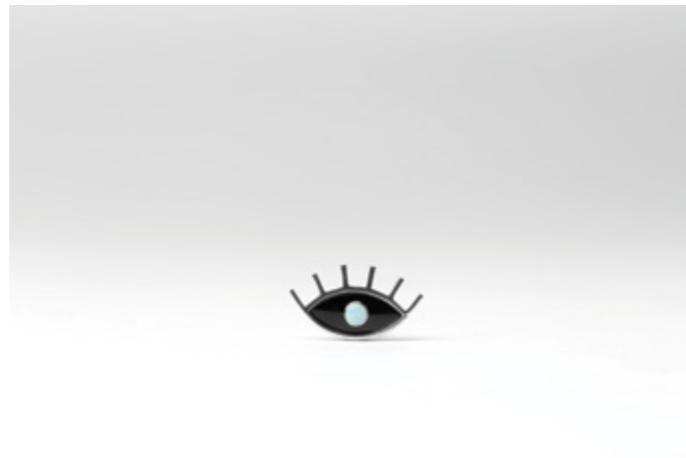

Oblinas

Black Onix,
Australian Opal
& Sterling Silver

Eyes – Wide Open

Single Ring

Double Ring

Piercing Earring

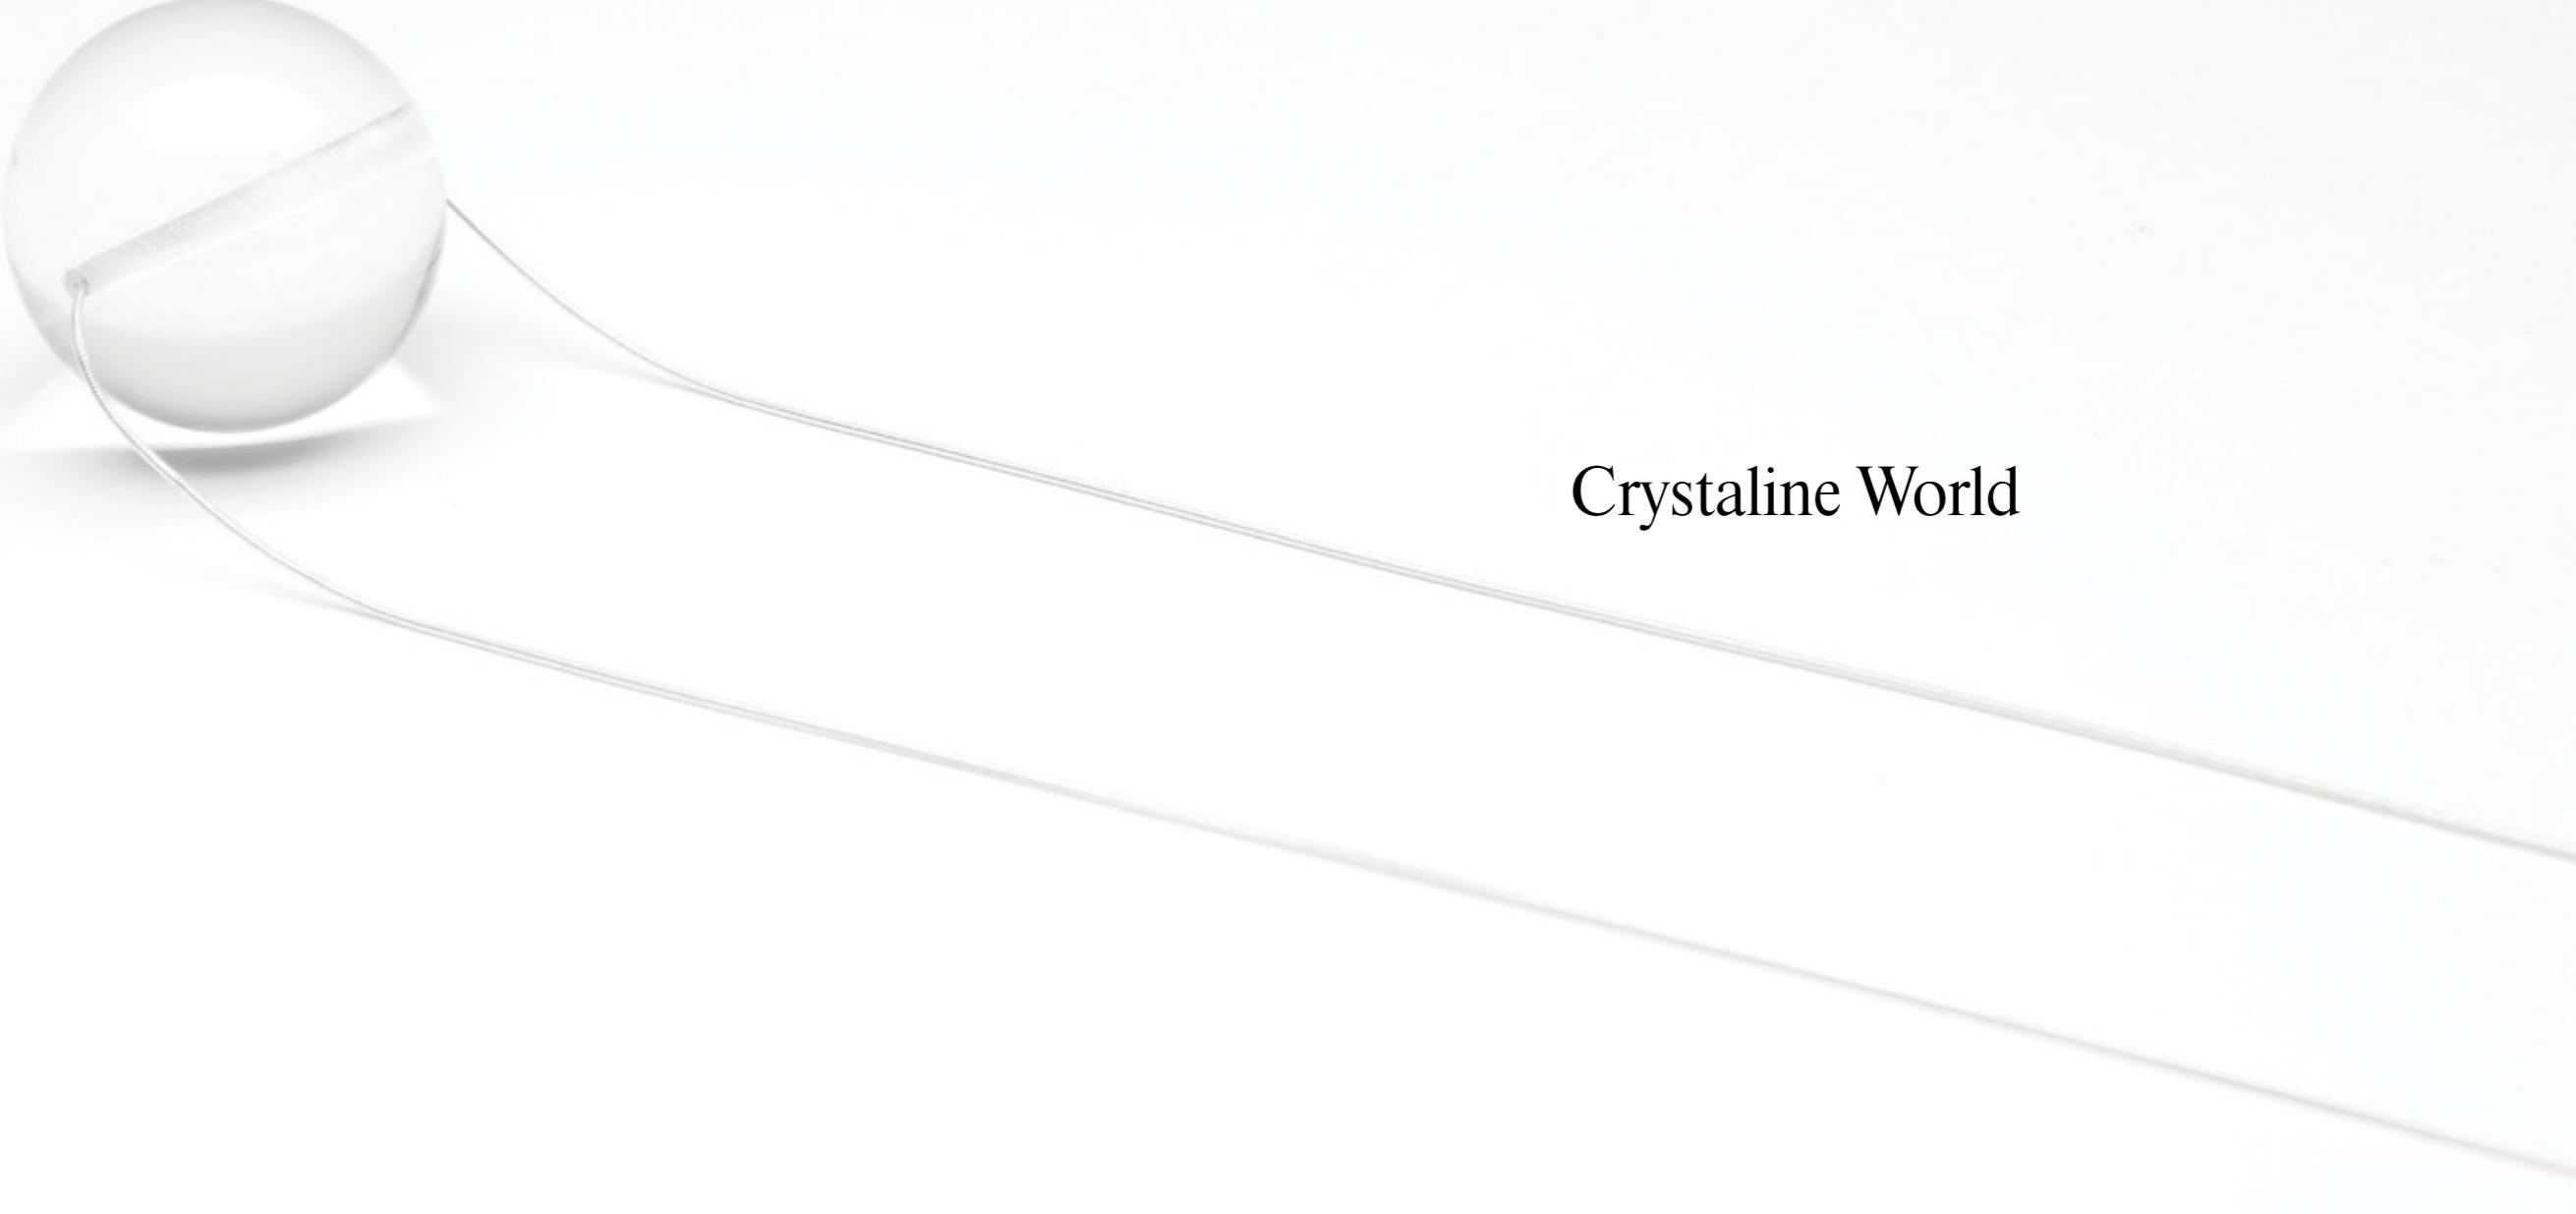

Brooch / Earring

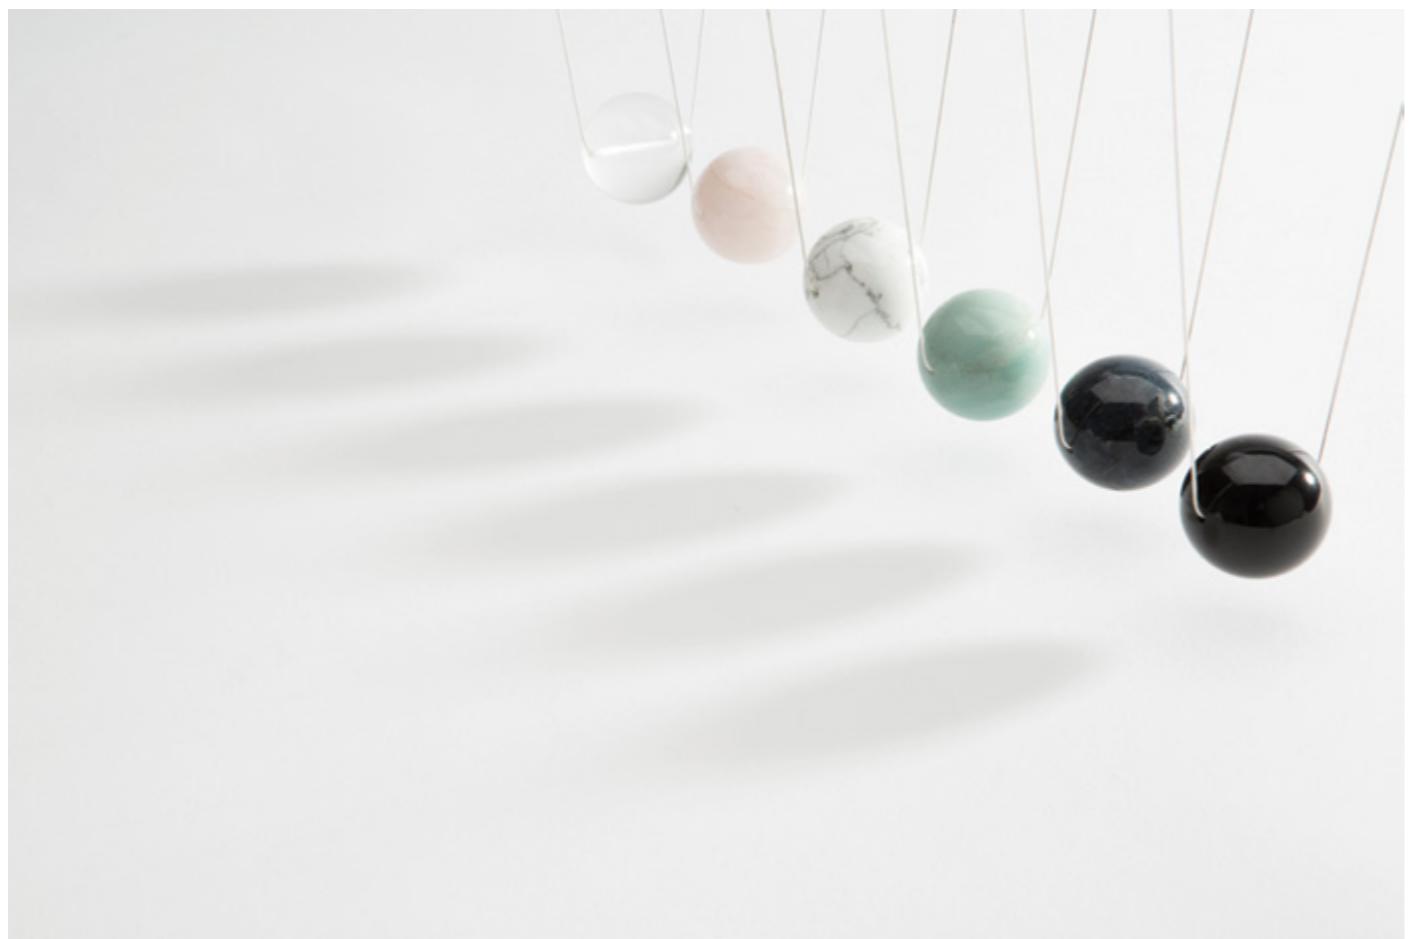

Mundos

Worlds
Made Out
Of Stone

Crystaline World

Mundos

A close-up photograph of a woman's hands, which are adorned with numerous rings featuring colorful opal stones set in silver. Her hands are clasped together, and she is resting her chin on her fingers. She is wearing a light-colored, possibly white, short-sleeved top.

Opal Pools

20 Unique Rings

Made With Australian Opals
& Sterling Silver

All Of Them – One Of A Kind

Each Of Them – Different

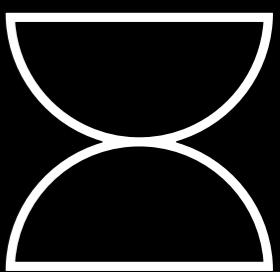

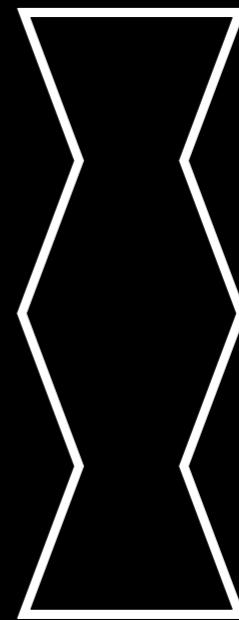

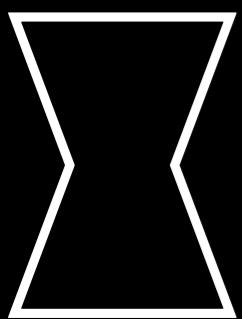

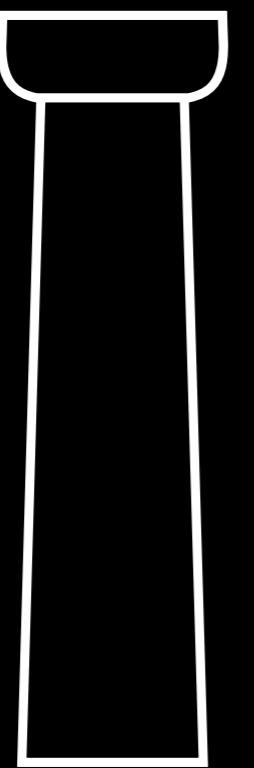

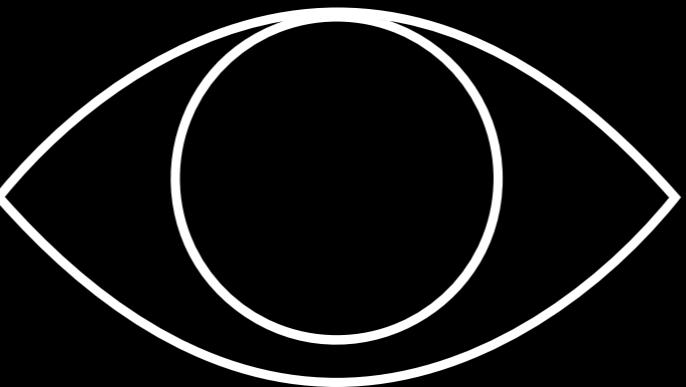

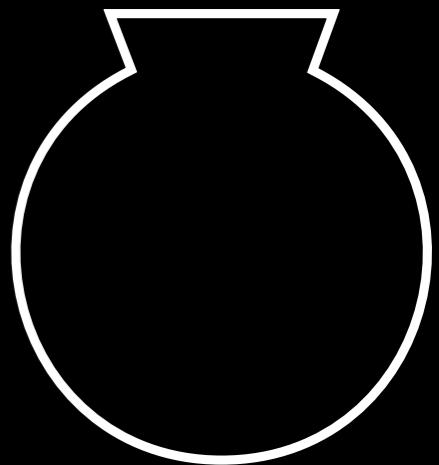

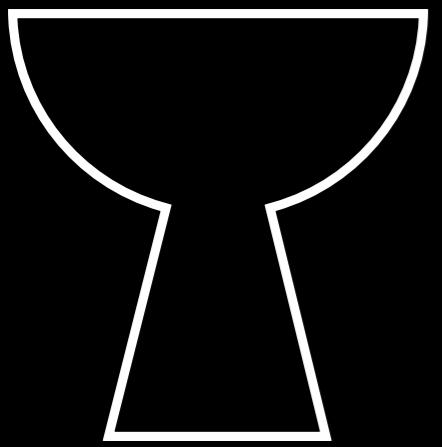

Origins

The Serpentine
Imaginary. An Ongoing Series
In Solid Silver

The Endless Column

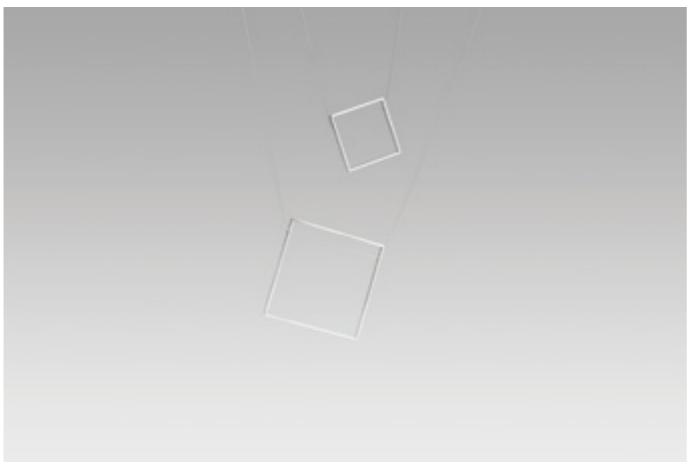

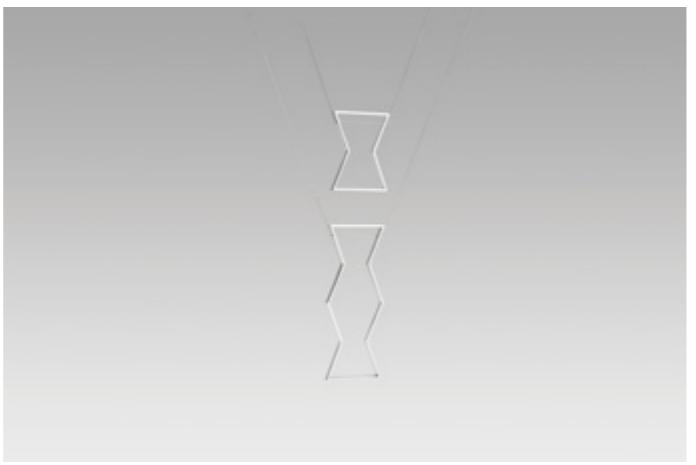

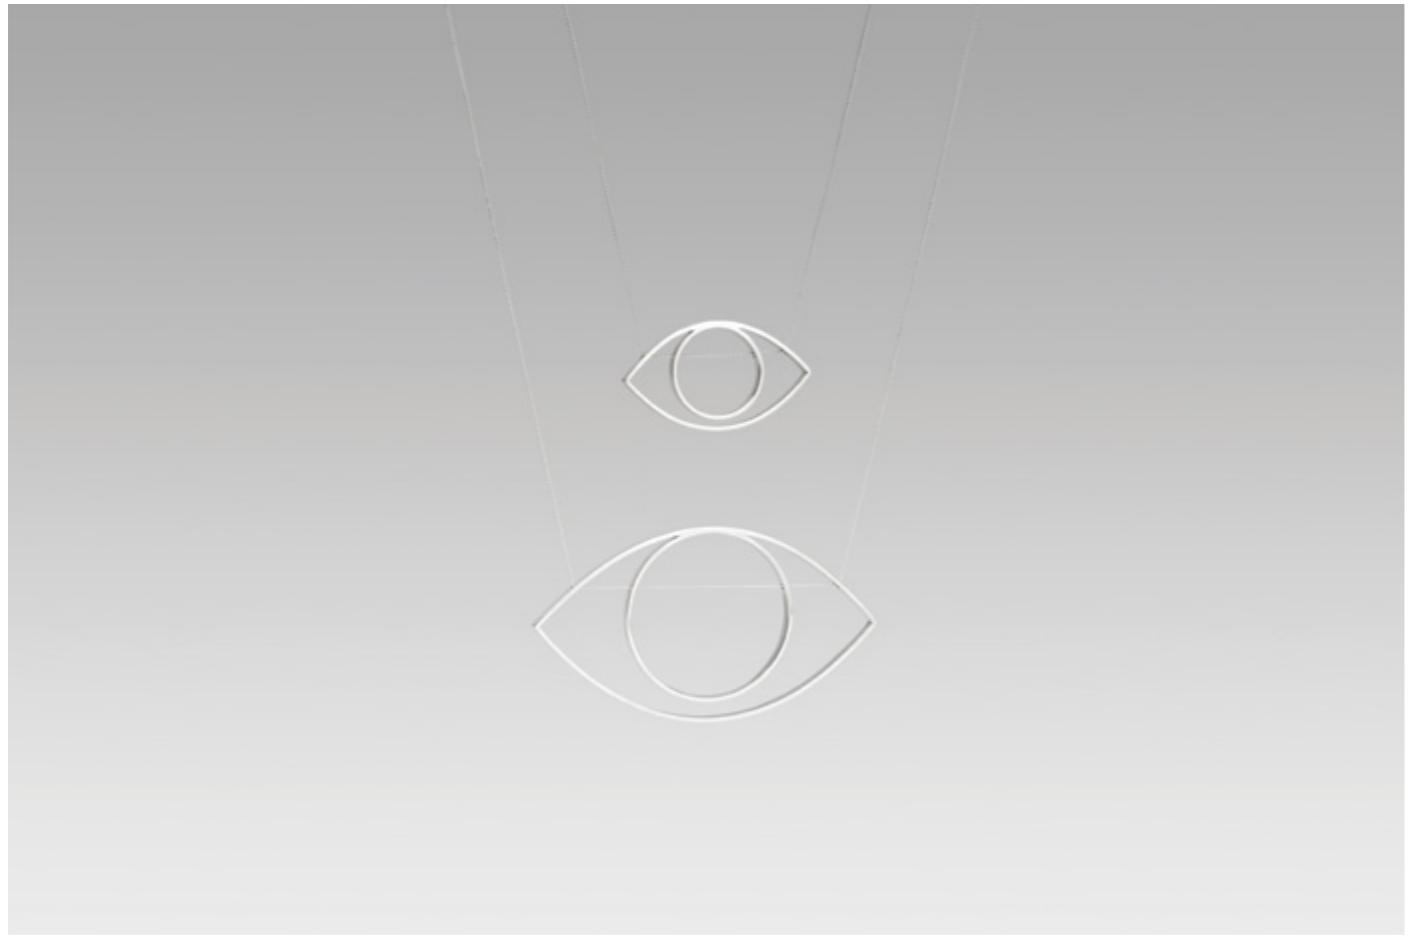

Serpentine
Serpentine

Sand
Time

Campaign Photographs

by Francesco Nazardo with Styling

by Megan Parson, Model: Sabine Schmidt,

Still Life Photography by Rodrigo Chapa,

Creative Direction by Serpentine,

Art Direction by Clandestine.Mx

Printed in Mexico City – Published

during Winter of 2015

We Ship Worldwide

info@serpentine.mx | www.serpentine.mx

